

Please withdraw any FCC petition that allows anyone to call a person at home, for any reason, whether they be a current customer or not. Indiana has made life livable by implementing the "Do Not Call" list, well ahead of the Federal request, and no amount of money any PAC can supply is worth the privacy and "Pursuit of Happiness" violations that telemarketers incur. Banks included. Thank you.